How to Apply

Cattedrale di Santa Maria del Fiore
Firenze, Italy
Steps to Apply

1. Attend a Study Abroad 101
2. Research Programs & Credit
3. Meet with a Study Abroad Advisor
4. Complete HeelsAbroad application
5. Complete Host Institution application*
6. Sign Study Abroad Contract after acceptance
7. Attend Pre-Departure Orientation

*Some programs do not require a host institution application
What's on an application?

Programs led by UNC:
- Apply entirely in HeelsAbroad

Partner Programs:
- Two sides to the application:
  - HeelsAbroad application
  - Host Institution application
- Apply in HeelsAbroad first, then apply to the host institution

Applications usually require:
- Transcript (unofficial or official)
- Short Answer Questions
- $50 Application Fee
- Disclaimers / Waivers
Application Cycles

- Application open date & deadline are the same, regardless of year
- Summer, Fall, Academic Year Cycle
  - Opens November 15
  - Closes February 10
- Spring & Calendar Year Cycle
  - Opens over the summer
  - Most programs close September 10

*These dates may vary by region

Other considerations...
- You can only apply to one program at a time.
- Applying to a program is not the same as committing to a program.

Health & Safety
All travel involves at least some level of risk, but there are certainly unique considerations to take into account while traveling during the COVID-19 Pandemic.

Recent changes to study abroad include:

- Implementation of online study programs with institutions abroad
- Additional risk assessment procedures while determining program viability
- Thorough briefing with students during pre-departure
- Program itinerary changes
